Where Residents Come First

Giving Thanks for You

*"When I count
my blessings,
I count you twice."*

This is how the Chesterbrook Residences team feels about our residents.

As we enter the season
of thanksgiving,
we think about the many wonderful people we serve each day.

Here are just a few of those bright and joyful faces!

Anniversary Antics

Our 17th anniversary was an evening of food, fun, and laughs. Residents and guests gathered for a celebratory cocktail hour, followed by a delicious dinner prepared by our talented dining team. The "Original" Moonlighters band played a variety of Motown, jazz, and big band standards while we dined and danced!

Cathy Kyle (left) with Lois Laman (in black) and Lois's daughter Robin and son-in-law Gary.

Our resident volunteers have some pizza following the festivities.

Neighborhood Treats

Our enthusiastic residents assisted our friends at Lewinsville Presbyterian Church (one of our three founding congregations) with their annual Trunk or Treat event in nearby McLean. We were excited to hand out candy, have an ice cream cone (or two!), and spend time with old and new friends.

A Tribute to Veterans

Our annual Veterans Day event uniquely honored our retired service members. In addition to a special reading, moment of silence, and pinning ceremony, residents and guests witnessed the unveiling of our new Veteran's Wall of Honor. This special place in our main lobby displays the photos, names, and military branches of our resident veterans.

Board Member Marshall Hyman and Veteran Glenn Yarborough of the American Legion pose with our new Veteran's Wall of Honor.

Chesterbrook Residences is a not-for-profit, nondenominational community governed by a local Board of Directors comprised of members from our three founding faith communities, Lewinsville Presbyterian, Temple Rodef Shalom, and Immanuel Presbyterian.
